Filling Holes in our Schedule 10% Off Sale

For a limited time we are extending our Winter Work 10% off promotion. If you have a project that you are preparing for take an additional 10% off. We are filling up some remaining spots in our schedule before the summer rush hits so act fast.

1. Rules

- a. Material pricing is only good for one month from the time of proposal. To secure material pricing a contract and payment must be completed in order to secure the materials at current market price. There are no markups on materials so if the price of materials goes up you only pay the difference.
 - b. This offer will only be valid for the time period stated. Once our schedule is filled for this time period the offer is discontinued.
 - c. Projects that are started in the current year continuously run and completed the following year are not qualified for this offer unless pre-approved by FRS.
 - d. The project must not be temperature sensitive where the completion of the project is impossible during the period stated.
 - e. No other promotions or discounts apply.
 - f. If we are matching a competitors bid the following restrictions apply.
 - i. The proposal must be a qualified and matching proposal.
 1. Qualified
 - a. Any local roofing business that is registered in the state of Colorado.
 - b. The business must carry workers compensation and general liability insurance.
 - c. The business should also have a B+ rating or better with the Better Business Bureau.
 2. Matching
 - a. The work and materials specified should be the same.
 - ii. We reserve the right to disqualify any competitors bid. Mistakes in estimating are a common occurrence for many roofing companies. FRS strives to minimize these mistakes but cannot guarantee other companies estimates to be true and accurate.
2. Matching
 - a. The work and materials specified should be the same.
3. Discount Amount
 - a. Take five percent off of your current bid and still get the same FRS Quality Installation.
